Product Name :	Product Code :
Building Automation Trainer	ELTC0025

Description :

Building Automation Trainer

Technical Specification :

Building management system training sets are designed to help the learner to get the ability of recognization of the products used in industrial and daily life, set up and run a system with these components. Hand on training environment and engineering practical environment basic same, the training equipment also are from engineering material System structure using intelligent training unit, property training equipment are installed in training on the unit, students can be in unit repeatedly in disassembling equipment, provide practice ability.